

Press Release

Contact: Chief Jon Simpson
Phone: (479) 271-3170

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Date: April 22, 2011

Bentonville Police Department Announces Promotions

Bentonville, AR.....The City of Bentonville Police Department announces the recent promotion of three police officers.

Detective Sergeant Justin Thompson has been promoted to rank of Lieutenant. In his new position, Lieutenant Thompson will supervise the Criminal Investigation Division as well as the Narcotics Division, Property and Evidence Section, and Internal Affairs. Lieutenant Thompson is a nine year veteran of the Department.

Detective Corporal Tony Marveggio has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant. In his new position, Detective Sergeant Tony Marveggio will remain assigned to the Criminal Investigation Division. In this position he will provide direct supervision for detectives and manage case assignments. Detective Sergeant Marveggio is an eight year veteran of the Department.

Uniform Division Officer Luke Rosebaugh has been promoted to the rank of Corporal. In his new position, Corporal Luke Rosebaugh will remain assigned to the Uniform Division. In this position he will continue his duties as a patrol officer and also provide direct supervision for the day to day operations of the Uniform Division. Corporal Rosebaugh is a five year veteran of the Department.

Lieutenant Thompson, Sergeant Marveggio, and Corporal Rosebaugh will be recognized for their accomplishments at a promotional ceremony on April 26th, 2011, at the Bentonville Police Department. The ceremony will be open to department members, their families, and invited guests.

###